

This Spectrum machine was built to feed a family of castor plates for assembly with little changeover time from part to part.

Despite warpage and a large rectangular shape, these plates are now auto fed where manual labor was the only previous solution.

Spectrum's straight line orientor tooling provides most efficient handling of difficult parts with good noise control.

Stop losing ...

... money with cut rate feeder performance.

Choose Spectrum's first rate products.

Call, write or drop in.

