

This family of valve stems is stored, elevated, oriented and tracked to an assembly machine at 60 pieces per minute.

Several special features were required to feed the full range of stem lengths and flimsy flanges.

Quickly adjusted orientor and track tooling takes less than five minutes for changeover.

Feathered edge, rubber flanges give these parts built-in noise control — a rare but welcome feeder advantage.

Automating? Do it better with SPECTRUM!

Automating?

Do it best with SPECTRUM!

Call, write or drop in for the best in parts feeders.

